Manatron Manager Tells Sick Employee to Get his Ass to Work

Manatron manager Wade Peikert leaves an interesting voice mail to an employee who is out sick.

"I got to tell ya, I'm a little baffled.
I mean, three days in a row because you have a sore throat doesn't add up to me.

I don't know if I've ever had an employee or anyone that wasn't on their death bed that was uh, out of work for three days in a row.

And, and, I, I, I, just uh, I need to hear you sounding like you are really sick or you need to get your ass in and get to work"
